A Coordinated Approach

We understand that working with multi-location and country organizations can be difficult to navigate sometimes for the customer and make it complicated to get timely information. This awareness has driven us to embrace a coordinated approach, so while there may be many people across multiple locations/country working on your product and coordinating details – we provide a clear and single window of communication for our client.

Why Vietnam?

A stable political environment, favorable population demographics, relative lower cost are some the aspects that make Vietnam a very attractive manufacturing base. Proactive involvement in many Free-Trade Agreements have also spurred economic growth which is among the fastest in ASEAN.

In 2021, Vietnam surpassed Bangladesh as the 2nd largest apparel producer/exporter in the world – behind only China, a country with more than 10 times the population (2020 Population Census in Vietnam indicated 97.8 million people). Different to some of its ASEAN and South Asian counterparts, Vietnam has also been able to develop its infrastructure to put itself enroute to becoming a more complete apparel sourcing destination. The network of supporting manufacturers and related business is robust, and well spread out geographically.

In recent years, there has also been a steep surge in foreign direct investment in the textile sector in Vietnam. Its proximity to China is also an advantage for those seeking shorter leadtimes. Most importantly the country is blessed with a well-educated and hard working labor force who really take pride in the product they make.

Fabric

We have a long history in fabric sourcing in China, going back to late 1980s when we first started sourcing 100% cotton corduroy fabric for our clients. The know-how and experience we have gained over the years has been our pillar of strength. The understanding of which geographical areas can produce certain fabrics, allows us to offer our buyers the most efficient options. We have had a physical presence in Keqiao/Shaoxing (the undisputed textile city of China, if not the world) since 2003 and have many long-standing relationships with mills in the region, giving us the kind of leverage that can turn into an advantage to our clients. If it's regular basic items, or something that needs to be developed from the ground up, we are confident we can bring our clients great results!

We work with all types of fabrics (including home textiles), but our general focus is material suited for ladies fashion apparel where we specialize in both knits and wovens, in all kinds of compositions and blends.
